1. Heard the parties for sometime.
2. This application is by the wife seeking transfer of the matrimonial proceeding from the learned Family Court at Aurangabad to learned Additional District Court, Biloli.
3. It is the submission of the learned advocate for the applicant that already proceedings bearing PWDVA No. 12/2021, RCC No. 78/2019 in respect of 498-A are pending in the Court at Biloli. There is one proceedings bearing Petition No.E-36/2021 pending before the learned “JMFC, Biloli” filed under Section 125 of the Cr. P. C. The children are also residing at Biloli. He, thus, submits that it is in the interest of justice to transfer the proceedings at learned Additional District Court, Biloli.

4. The learned advocate for the respondents vehemently opposed the application. He submits that respondent is in service in Aurangabad. He requires to take leave to attend the court proceedings which causes more hardship to him. He is ready to give traveling expenses to the wife. Therefore, he prays for rejection of the application.

5. After considering the submission of parties, this court finds that it would be in the interest of justice to transfer the proceeding from the Court at Aurangabad to the Court at Biloli.
