applicant, noting the submissions in paragraph 3 and the undertaking given by the applicant at paragraph No.4, as follows : -

“3. The learned Counsel for the applicant submits that the dispute between the applicant and the complainant is primarily civil in nature, as the complainant has already filed a civil suit seeking declaration and injunction, which is pending. The applicant has responded to the civil suit, and the trial Court's decision on Exhibit 5 partially favored the complainant but also indicated that a full trial is required to resolve the matter."

"4. The learned Counsel for the applicant further submits that he will hand over all the original documents to the Investigating Officer."

4. The learned Counsel for the applicant submits that, in compliance with the order of this Court dated 21/11/2024, the applicant has cooperated with the investigation and submitted the original documents to the Investigating Officer.

5. In view of the pending civil suit between the parties, wherein an injunction has already been granted, and the applicant's cooperation with the investigation, no further interrogation is necessary. Accordingly, the interim protection granted to the applicant by order dated 21/11/2024 is confirmed.

6. In view of the above, the application is allowed in the following terms: -

i] In the event the applicant is arrested in connection with FIR No.0671/2024 dated 31/10/2024, registered with City Police Station Nandurbar, for the offences punishable under sections 420, 419, 467, 468, 471 of the Indian Penal Code, he shall be released on bail on furnishing PR bond of Rs.20,000/- with one or two sureties in

8. It is also clarified that the observations made in this order are limited to the disposal of the present anticipatory bail application and the trial Court shall proceed further in the matter without being influenced by the observations made hereinabove.
