CORAM : SHAILESH P. BRAHME, J.
DATE : 29.09.2025

PER COURT :-

1. It reveals from record that respondent Nos.7 and 9 are unserved. But, they have settled matter with the applicants before the Trial Court. This position is brought to the notice of this Court by learned counsel for the applicants. In any way, respondent Nos.7 and 9 who are not before this Court are not the contesting parties and they are likely to support the applicants only.

2. Applicants are seeking condonation of delay of 47 days. Application is not controverted by any reply. None appears for the served respondents to oppose the application.

3. For the reasons stated in the application, this Court desires it necessary to condone the delay.

4. Civil application for condonation of delay is allowed in terms of prayer clause "B".

Appeal From Order

5. List this appeal from order for final disposal at the admission stage on 13.10.2025.

6. Registrar (Judicial) shall intimate the order passed today to the Presiding Officer who is seized of Special Civil Suit No.33 of 2014 so as to appraise the parties the status of the Appeal. Parties shall be at liberty to appear in the matter and address the Court.
