CORAM : SACHIN S. DESHMUKH, J.

DATE : 22-12-2025

PER COURT:-

1. The applicant seeks regular bail in connection with Crime No.282 of 2025 dated 27.11.2025, registered with Begumpura Police Station, Aurangabad, for the offences punishable under Sections 105, 281, 324(4), 125(a), 125(b) of the Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 and Section 184 of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988. In the said crime, the applicant is arrested on 27.11.2025.
2. The prosecution case is that on 26.11.2025, the Informant received a call from his sister that the her husband met with an accident and was admitted to the hospital and eventually succumbed to injuries. Hence, the report came to be lodged and the applicant came to be arrested during the investigation.
3. The learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant has been falsely implicated in the present case. There is no cogent evidence on record to establish his complicity in the alleged offence. There is no motive on the part of the applicant. As such, allegations leveled against the applicants do not suffice the requirements for the offenses against the applicant. It is further submitted that the applicant was not engaged in any form of rash driving or negligence as alleged by the prosecution. Thus, no purpose would be served by keeping the applicant behind the bars. Hence, prayed to allow the application.

4. The learned A.P.P. has opposed the application and submitting that the applicant negligently drove the vehicle resulting into death of the deceased and serious injury to his daughter. As such, the same disentitle the applicant to be enlarged on bail.

5. Having heard the submissions from both the sides and upon perusal of the record, including the chargesheet, indicates that prima facie the alleged incident appears to be a case of road accident. There is no sufficient material to establish that the applicant was driving in a rash or negligent manner. Nevertheless, the same is an aspect of trial and cannot be dealt into at this juncture. As such, further incarceration of the applicant would be unjustified. Equally, the presence of the applicant for the trial can be ensured by imposing stringent conditions.

6. In that view of the matter, a case is made out to release the applicant on bail.

7. Hence, the following order:-
