Mr. D. R. Korade, AGP for the Respondent/State

CORAM : SIDDHESHWAR S. THOMBRE, J.

DATE : 11th DECEMBER, 2025

P. C. :-

1. Heard learned counsel for the Petitioner.
2. Mr. Talhar, learned counsel points out that the order dated 15.05.2023 passed by the Divisional Joint Registrar, Co-operative Societies, under the Maharashtra Money Lenders (Regulation) Act in Appeal No.37/2022, whereby application filed by petitioners came to be rejected and thereby confirming the order dated 24.11.2022 passed by District Deputy Registrar (Money Lenders), Jalgaon.
3. Mr. Korade, learned AGP raises preliminary objection to the maintainability of the petition by pointing out that, against the order passed by Divisional Joint Registrar, the Petitioner has an alternate and efficacious remedy by filing a revision under Section 9 of the Maharashtra Money-Lending (Regulation) Act, 2014 before the Registrar of Money Lending, Maharashtra State, Pune.

4. In view of that, petitions are disposed of as not maintainable.

5. The Petitioner is at liberty to file the revision before the Registrar of Money Lending, Maharashtra State, Pune within a period of six weeks from today.

6. The delay incurred on account of prosecuting the present petition shall be duly considered by the authority while considering an application for condonation of delay.

7. The interim relief granted by this Court shall remain in operation until the revisional authority decides the matter on its own merits.

8. All the points are kept open.

9. Parties to maintain the status-quo till the revision is decided.

10. Let the Registrar of Money Lending, Maharashtra State, Pune to decide the proceedings within a period of six months from today.

11. All Writ Petitions stand disposed of. Pending civil applications, if any, stand disposed of.
