ORDER :

1. Present applications are filed for suspension of sentence and grant of bail on account of conviction recorded by the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.5, Dhule dated 09.08.2024, in Sessions Case No.126 of 2018.
2. Learned counsel for applicant in Criminal Application No.3784/2024, submits that applicant was tried for commission of offences punishable under Sections 395, 342 read with Section 120(B) of the Indian Penal Code (IPC), and trial was conducted vide Sessions Case No.126 of 2018. That, applicant has been convicted along with others for above sections/offences, and awarded sentence to suffer rigorous imprisonment for 10 years and to pay fine of Rs.5,000/-. That, against the said judgment and order of conviction, appeal has been preferred before this Court, which is bearing No.812/2024. Learned counsel pointed out that, similarly placed accused namely Sanjay Amrutlal Patel has been given the benefit of suspension of sentence and bail by the Hon'ble Apex Court by its order dated 16.12.2024. Therefore, on the ground of parity, learned counsel prays for similar relief of suspension of sentence and for grant of bail.

{3}

3. Learned counsel for applicant in Criminal Application No.342/2025 submits that even this applicant was also tried and convicted for commission of above offences, and vide judgment and order dated 09.08.2024, he is also held guilty and sentenced to suffer rigorous imprisonment for 10 years and fine of Rs.5,000/-. That, against the said judgment and order of conviction, appeal has been preferred before this Court, which is bearing No.842/2024. He also seeks relief similar relief on the ground of parity.

4. The above applications are opposed by learned APP on the ground that, on full fledged trial, they are held guilty for offence punishable under Sections 195, 342 read with Section 120(B) 353 of IPC. Therefore, learned APP prays for rejection of application.

5. After considering the submissions of both sides and on going through the papers, it seems that both the above applicants were tried and convicted in Sessions Case No. 126 of 2018 by judgment and order dated 09.08.2024. Learned Additional Sessions Judge, Dhule was pleased to accept the prosecution case recording guilty of applicants for offences punishable under Sections 395, 342 read with Section 120(B) of IPC, and they are sentenced to suffer ten years imprisonment and to pay fine. It seems that they have preferred separate appeals before this

Court and the same are numbered as 842 of 2024 and 812 of 2024, respectively. As there are no immediate prospects of hearing of both appeals, and when co-accused given benefit of suspension of sentence and bail by the Hon'ble Apex Court, there is no reason to refuse the similar relief to the present applicants. Accordingly, both applications succeed. Therefore, the following order is passed:-
