month of October-2023 he took her to one lodge and there against her wish committed sexual intercourse with her. It is alleged that he clicked her objectionable photographs and on the basis of said photographs he subjected her to sexual intercourse on many occasions by threatening her that he would make the said photographs viral on social media.

4. I have heard the learned counsel for the applicant and learned A.P.P for the Respondent-State.

5. The learned counsel for the applicant submits that there was a love affair between the present applicant and the victim. It is submitted that the family members of the victim were however against the said relationship and therefore they made the victim to lodge the FIR against the present applicant.

6. On the other hand, the learned A.P.P for the Respondent-State submits that considering the nature of offence the applicant may not be released on bail.

7. I have perused the charge-sheet. Prima facie there appears to be substance in submission of the learned counsel for the applicant. The applicant is in jail for approximately five months. Considering the over all facts and circumstances, I am inclined to release the applicant on bail.
