and committed his murder.

4. I have heard the learned counsel for the applicant and learned A.P.P for the Respondent-State.

5. The learned counsel for the applicant submitted that the applicant has nothing to do with the alleged crime. It is submitted that alleged eye-witnesses have not attributed any overt act to the applicant. It is submitted that there are no other criminal antecedents against the present applicant.

6. On the other hand, the learned A.P.P for the Respondent-State submits that involvement of the applicant in the crime in question is apparent from the statement of witnesses. It is submitted that considering the nature of offence, the applicant may not be released on bail.

7. I have perused the statements of the eye witnesses recorded under Sections 161 and 164 of Cr.P.C. They have not attributed any specific overt act to the present applicant. In that view of the matter and as there are no other criminal antecedents against the applicant, I am inclined to release the applicant on bail.
