CORAM : RAJESH S. PATIL, J.

DATE : MARCH 17, 2025.

P.C. :

1. This application is filed under Section 482 of the Bhartiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 for seeking pre-arrest bail in connection with the First Information Report (FIR) No.258/2024 registered with the Aundh Police Station, District Satara, for the offence punishable under Sections 115(2), 118(1), 189(2), 190, 191(2), 191(3), 351(2), 352 of the Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023.

2. It is alleged by the complainant – Dipak Bhanudas Jagtap that on 9/12/2024, at about 4.30 p.m., when the complainant was at home, he received phone call of his cousin brother. Hence, he reached the field owned by him where he found the applicants along with certain unknown persons. The accused and the persons who were accompanying them assaulted the complainant and his wife. The complainant sustained injuries on his head, back and waist. Hence, the FIR has been lodged.

3. It is submitted on behalf of the applicants that the cross complaint has been lodged. The applicant no.1 and the complainant are cousin brothers. Their lands adjacent to each other. There is no criminal antecedents reported against the applicants. They are ready to cooperate with the police. There is nothing to be recovered from the present applicants. On allegations of pesticides being poured in the field, the crop of the adjacent land gets damaged. The allegation about 'Mangalsutra' being snatched is made with an ulterior motive. Therefore, physical custody of the present applicant is not necessary. After the present FIR was lodged within one hour the applicant has also lodged the FIR against the complainant.

4. The learned APP submits that as regards the 'Mangalsutra', it is still missing and has not been found by the IO. Therefore, custody of the applicants is necessary for completing the investigation.

5. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and considered the documents on record.

6. This is a case between the applicant no.1 and the informant who are cousin brothers. Both of them have lodged FIRs against each other. The incident occurred in the field of informant. The fields of both the parties which are adjacent, on the petty issue of pesticides being poured due to which adjacent crop gets damaged. There was physical assault and the injuries sustained are not serious in nature. Taking into consideration the case of the applicant, the contents of the FIR, parties are being related to each other, there are cross FIRs being filed against each other, the case is made out to grant pre-arrest bail to the applicants. Hence, the following order.
