P.C.:

. At the outset, the learned APP, on instructions from the investigating officer present in the Court, has fairly conceded that the offence has not been registered against the applicant and the prosecution is not intending to arrest the applicant in the present crime.

2. In view of the statement made by the learned APP, the learned Counsel for the applicant, on instructions, seeks leave to withdraw this application. Leave granted as prayed for.

3. The application stands dismissed as withdrawn. It is made clear that if the occasion so arises, the applicant is at liberty to seek appropriate legal remedy available in law.
