Ms. Anjali P. Purav for the Petitioner in WP 3057 of 2011, 2994 of 2011, 3036 of 2011, 3056 of 2011, 3060 of 2011, 2995 of 2011, 3003 of 2011, 3033 of 2011.

Ms. Anjali Helekar for Respondent-employees.

Mr. Milind Deshmukh for Petitioner in WP Nos.8224 of 2012 to 8231 of 2012.

CORAM: SANDEEP V. MARNE, J.
DATE : 9 APRIL 2025.

P.C.:

1. These Petitions are filed by Solapur District Co-operative Agriculture and Rural Multi Purpose Development Bank Limited as well as by Maharashtra State Co-operative Agriculture and Rural Multi Purpose Development Bank Limited challenging the orders passed by the Industrial Court by which directions were issued for payment of various amounts to the Respondent-employees. Both Ms. Purav and Mr. Deshmukh the learned counsel appearing for the Petitioner-Banks would submit that all the disputes with the individual employees have already been resolved. It is pointed out that the concerned employees have already been paid amounts towards full and final settlement. That they have agreed not to press any further claims towards interest or additional amount against the Petitioner-Banks. Copies of some of the undertakings executed by the Respondent-employees in favour of Branch Offices of the Banks have been shown to me. The said undertakings would indicate that upon receipt of agreed amount, the Respondent-employees have given up their claim for interest.

2. Since all the claims of the Respondent-employees involved in the present Petitions are already said to have been settled, nothing survives to be adjudicated in these Petitions. Ms. Helekar, the learned counsel appearing for the Respondent-employees would submit that she does not have any instructions to verify the claim of the Petitioner-Banks about settlement of the disputes. She would submit that despite making repeated attempts, several of her clients are un-contactable. The Petitions cannot be kept pending indefinitely. If any individual employee has any grievance with regard to non-payment of dues to him/her, they would be at liberty to file appropriate proceedings either in this Court or before the appropriate Forum. As of now it would be appropriate to dispose of all these Petitions by modifying the orders passed by the Industrial Court and bringing the same in tune with the settlement executed with the Petitioner-Banks.

3. All the impugned orders passed by the Industrial Court are accordingly modified to the extent that the amount already agreed to be paid/paid by the Petitioner-Banks shall be towards full and final settlement of all claims of Respondent-employees against the Petitioner-Banks. However if any particular employee has a grievance of non-receipt of the amount under the settlement, he would be at liberty to file appropriate proceedings either in this Court or in the appropriate Forum.

4. It appears that since the Respondent-employees are individually paid the amount of compensation, the balance amount remaining in the accounts of this Court can be permitted to be withdrawn by the Administrator of the Solapur District Co-operative Agriculture and Rural Multi Purpose Development Bank Limited and Maharashtra State Co-operative Agriculture and Rural Multi Purpose Development Bank. Accordingly leave granted to the Administrator to withdraw the entire deposited amount in this Court alongwith accrued interest.

5. With the above directions, all the Petitions are disposed of.

6. In view of disposal of the above Writ Petitions, nothing would survive in the above Civil Applications and the same are also accordingly disposed of.
