CORAM : SHIVKUMAR DIGE, J.

DATE : 26th NOVEMBER, 2025.

P.C. :

1. By this application, the Applicant is seeking relaxation of condition.
2. It is contention of learned counsel for the Applicant that the Applicant is released on bail by this Court (Coram: A. S. Gadkari and Prakash D. Naik, JJ) vide order dated 2nd February, 2023. The condition No.(ii) imposed on him not to enter jurisdiction of Mandrup police station till conclusion of the trial except for attending the concerned police station. Learned counsel further submitted that the Applicant is out of his village for two years. There is no progress in the trial. The Applicant family stays in the jurisdiction Mandrup Police Station. It may take time to conclude the trial. Hence, requested to allow the application.

3. It is contention of learned APP along with learned counsel for Respondent No.2 that the Applicant is influential person. The first informant and the Applicant stays in same village. If the condition is relaxed, the Applicant may threaten the first informant and prosecution witnesses. An earlier application filed by the Applicant for relaxation of condition was rejected by this Court. Hence, requested to reject the application.

4. I have heard both learned counsel, perused F.I.R. and documents produced on record.

5. The condition was imposed on the Applicant two years ago. He has not entered his village for the past two years and has been away from his family during this entire period. The entire family is dependent on him, and the condition has caused undue hardship. The Applicant cannot be prevented to meet his family. Considering
