

that the applicant has been falsely implicated in this case. He is behind bar more than 18 months. Investigation is completed. Chargesheet has been filed. There is no progress in the trial. The applicant has no antecedent. It may take time to conclude the trial. Hence, requested to allow the application.

4. It is contention of learned APP along with respondent No.2 that the applicant forcefully entered in the house of the first informant and on the point of knife, he sexually assaulted the first informant. Learned APP further submits that the spot panchnama filed along with chargesheet shows that the door was broke open by the applicant. There are statements of eye witnesses which supports the first informant's version. Charge is framed against the applicant and trial is going to begin. If the applicant is released on bail, he may threaten the first informant and prosecution witnesses. Hence, requested to reject the application.

5. I have heard both learned counsel, perused the FIR and documents produced on record.

6. The applicant is behind bar more than 18 months. It appears from the record that investigation is completed and chargesheet has been filed. Though charge is framed, trial has not been started. Applicant has no antecedent. Considering these facts, further detention of applicant is not required and I pass following order :

ORDER

(i) Application is allowed.

(ii) The applicant be enlarged on bail in Crime No.52 of 2024 registered with Valsang Police Station, Solapur Rural, on executing P. R. Bond in the sum of Rs.20,000/- with one or two sureties in the like amount.

(iii) The applicant shall not enter in the Solapur City till recording of evidence of the first informant except attending the Court dates.

(iv) The applicant shall not tamper with the evidence or attempt to influence or contact the complainant, witnesses or any person concerned with the case.

7. The application is allowed in the aforesaid terms and is accordingly disposed off.

8. It is made clear that the above observations are made only for the purpose of granting bail and the Trial Court shall decide the case on its own merits in accordance with law and uninfluenced by the observations made in this order.

9. All concerned to act on the authenticated copy of this order.
