

3. The sister of the present applicant was married to the younger brother of the deceased. It is alleged that the deceased was addicted to liquor and used to quarrel with the sister of the present applicant and her husband. It is alleged that, fed up with the act of the deceased, the husband of the sister of the applicant was compelled to commit suicide. It is alleged that thus on the date of incident which took place on 06.03.2024, the applicant along with other co-accused committed his murder.

4. I have heard the learned counsel for the applicant and learned A.P.P for the Respondent-State.

5. The learned A.P.P. submits that the prosecution has collected C.C.T.V. footage wherein the entire incident is captured. It is submitted that considering the nature of crime, the present applicant may not be released on bail.

6. The applicant is in jail for one year. Considering the overall facts and circumstances of the case, I am inclined to release the applicant on bail.
