Mr. Ajit M. Savagave for the petitioners

Dr. A. A. Takalkar APP for the State

CORAM : SHIVKUMAR DIGE, J.

DATE : 10th SEPTEMBER 2025

P.C.:

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned APP.
2. After arguing for sometime, learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the cheque given to the petitioners is sent to hand writing expert after recording statement of respondent-accused under Section 313 of Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973. There was delay in filing the application. Learned counsel for the petitioners further submits that petitioner no. 2 did not receive any notice from the Court before deciding the application. Learned counsel further submits that if this Court directs the Trial Court to consider the submissions of the petitioners on report of the hand writing expert, writ petition can be disposed of by giving said direction.

3. Considering the submissions of the learned counsel for the petitioners, the Trial Court is directed to consider the submissions of the petitioners after receiving the report of hand writing expert and decide the matter on its own merits. The Trial Court shall make endeavour to call report from hand writing expert as early as possible and also endeavour to dispose of the pending trial as early as possible.

4. Accordingly, Writ Petition is disposed of.
