CORAM : JITENDRA JAIN, J.
DATED : 9 DECEMBER 2025

P.C.:

INTERIM APPLICATION NO.3893 OF 2025

1. This application is taken out by the respondent seeking a direction that the appellant should pay the arrears of the assessment tax which according to the appellant, amounts to Rs.43,78,465/-. This figure is disputed by the appellant. However, in the reply of the appellant they have stated that approximately 9 lakhs has been paid on 5 June 2023. Learned counsel for the appellant further states that they will continue to pay the assessment tax dues as per the records of the Corporation.

2. In the light of the above statement, prayer clause (a) is worked out.

3. Insofar as prayer clause (b) is concerned the issue is for expediting the hearing to determine as to whether respondent is liable to pay Rs.25 Lakhs in addition to Rs.5,20,000/-. This issue is the subject matter of the First Appeal and, therefore, the same cannot be adjudicated in the present Interim Application.

4. Insofar as expediting the hearing is concerned since limited point is involved in the appeal as agreed upon by both learned counsel, liberty to the parties to move the appeal Court in the month of January-2026 for making a request for fixing date of hearing.

5. Interim Application is disposed of.
