P.C. :

INTERIM APPLICATION NO. 262/2024 IN FIRST APPEAL (ST)
NO.34752/2023:-

1. This application is filed for condonation of delay in filing the First Appeal.
2. Heard learned counsel for the parties.
3. I have gone through the contents of the application and convinced that the application requires to be allowed.

4. The Supreme Court in the judgment of Collector, Land Acquisition, Anantnag and another Vs. Mst. Katji and Others reported in 1987 SC 1353, has held that:

“Every day’s delay must be explained” does not mean that a pedantic approach should be made. Why not every house’s delay. Every second’s delay ? The doctrine must be applied in a rational common sense pragmatic manner.”

5. Supreme Court in the case of S. Ganesharaju (Dead) through Lrs V. Narasamma (Dead) through Lrs reported in (2013) 11 SCC 341, more specifically, paragraph Nos. 12 and 13, of the said judgment held that a liberal construction to the cause of delay should be given. The said paragraphs are reproduced herein below:

12. The expression “sufficient cause” as appearing in Section 5 of the Limitation Act, 1963, has to be given a liberal construction so as to advance substantial justice. Unless the respondents are able to show malafides in not approaching the court within the period of limitation, generally as a normal rule, delay should be condoned. The trend of the courts while dealing with the matter with regard to condonation of delay has tilted more towards condoning delay and directing the parties to contest the matter on merits, meaning thereby that such technicalities have been given go-by.

13. The rules of limitation are not meant to destroy or foreclose the right of parties. They are meant to see that parties do not resort to dilatory tactics but seek their remedy promptly.

- 6. Bombay High Court in the judgment of Kamalbai Narasaiyya Shrimal and Another Vs. Ganpat Vithalrao Gavare reported in 2007 (1) MH. L.J. 807, paragraph Nos.13 and 15 has held:

13. The factual position is manifestly clear on bare perusal of the application for condonation filed by the petitioners before the learned District Judge. The only relevant statement in the application is thus:

“The delay caused in preferring the appeal is of six months. The caused delay is not intentional one. The appellants are poor and helpless persons. If the delay is not condoned appellant may cause irreparable loss which cannot be compensated in terms of money. The suit was for recovery of possession and present appellants are tenants. If the delay is not condoned then appellants will become shelterless.”

15. The expression “sufficient cause” cannot be erased from section of the Limitation Act by adopting excessive liberal approach which would defeat the very purpose of section 5 of the Limitation Act. There must be some cause which can be termed as a sufficient one for the purpose of delay condonation. I do not find any such “sufficient cause” stated in the application and as such no interference in the impugned order is called for.”

- 7. According to me, considering the submissions and the law laid down in various judgments, a case is made out to allow the application.
- 8. The application is allowed in terms of prayer clause (b) and disposed of accordingly.

INTERIM APPLICATION NO. 263/2024 IN FIRST APPEAL (ST) NO.34752/2023:-

9. This application is filed for seeking stay to the impugned judgment and award.

10. Ms. Kharkar, learned counsel appearing for the respondent nos.1a and 3a to 3c holding for Ms. Potnis submits that part of the amount has been deposited and the applicant should be directed to deposit the balance amount.

11. Subject to the applicant depositing the balance amount of the award along with accrued interest, there will be stay to the impugned judgment and award.

FIRST APPEAL (ST) NO.34752/2023 :-

12. Heard learned counsel for the parties.

13. Admit.

14. The appellant to file private paper-book within one year from today. A copy of the same to be served on other side.

15. Soft copy of R & P be sent by the trial Court to the High Court within 4 weeks from today. Original R & P should be preserved by the trial Court till further orders of this Court. Original R & P to be sent to the High Court when called for.

16. Parties to file a compilation of documents, short synopsis along with their preposition of law and authorities relied upon by them within one week from today.
