CORAM : SOMASEKHAR SUNDARESAN, J.
DATE : JUNE 19, 2025

ORDER :

1. This Petition has been filed under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 ("the Act") seeking appointment of an arbitrator in connection with disputes and differences that are said to have arisen between the parties under an Agreement dated January 18, 2017 ("Agreement"). The arbitration agreement is contained in Clause 19 of the Agreement (found at Page No. 27 of the Petitioner). In the interest of brevity, the arbitration agreement is not being extracted here. Suffice it to say that this matter falls within the jurisdiction of this Court.

2. Learned Counsel for the Petitioner submits that invocation of arbitration against the partners of the partnership firm forms part of the record of the partnership whereas invocation against the firm is not part of the record. That need not hold up consideration of this Petition. Consequently, since the existence of the arbitration agreement among the partners is not in dispute and the parties have, in fact, attempted to resolve the disputes by mediation, it would be appropriate to refer the parties to arbitration forthwith.

3. The scope of review under Section 11 is explicitly set out in Section 11(6A) of the Act. It is now trite law, with particular regard to the Supreme Court's decision rendered by a seven-judge Bench in the *Interplay Judgement*¹ followed by multiple others, including *SBI General*² and *Patel*³ that the Section 11 Court ought not to venture beyond examining the existence of a validly existing arbitration agreement that has been formally executed. Even questions of existential substance is a matter that falls squarely in the domain of the arbitral tribunal, in view of Section 16 of the Act.

4. Being satisfied that an arbitration agreement is validly in existence, and that arbitration has been duly invoked, it is in the fitness of things to refer the disputes and differences between the parties in connection with the aforesaid Agreement dated January 18, 2017 to arbitration by a Sole Arbitrator.
