CORAM : GAURI GODSE, J.

DATED : 27th JANUARY 2025

ORDER :-

1. This appeal arises out of an order directing the parties to maintain status quo. The main application is yet to be heard by the trial Court.

2. Learned counsel for the appellant submits that the appellant has already filed an application for rejection of the plaint, which is dismissed. He submits that the appellant has filed a civil revision application in this Court.

3. Learned counsel for the appellant submits that he has already filed his reply in the application for interim relief. However, the application is still pending.

4. I do not find any reason to interfere in the ad-interim order granted by the trial Court. Any observations by this Court on merits of the rival contentions, is likely to cause prejudice to the rival contentions of the parties on merits in the application for interim relief. Hence, I do not find it appropriate to deal with the rival contentions of the parties in this appeal.

5. All the rival contentions of the parties on merits are kept open to be argued and decided in the application for interim relief in the suit.

6. With the aforesaid observations, the appeal is dismissed.

7. In view of the dismissal of the appeal, interim application is disposed of as infructuous.
