CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

BAIL APPLICATION NO. 1556 OF 2024

Nabil Akbar Shaikh

.Applicant

vs.

The State of Maharashtra

.Respondent

Mr. Tajamul Usman Khan, Advocate, for the Applicant

Mrs. Megha Bajoria, APP, for the Respondent – State

Mr. Ajay D. Gangawane, API, Mumbai Police Station, Thane city present

CORAM : MILIND N. JADHAV, J.

DATE : 03.01.2025

P. C.

1. After hearing arguments of Mr. Khan, learned Advocate for the Applicant and Mrs. Bajoria, learned APP for the Respondent – State for some time, I have expressed my mind to the learned Advocate for the Applicant that I am not inclined to grant bail to the Applicant, Mr. Khan, learned Advocate for the Applicant would persuade me to permit withdrawal of the Application in that view of the matter.

2. However, adhering to the request made by learned Advocate for the Applicant, learned trial Court is requested by this Court to consider expediting the trial according to it's convenience.

3. The Application is allowed to be withdrawn and dismissed as such.
