CORAM : SARANG V. KOTWAL &
SHYAM C. CHANDAK, JJ.

DATED : 24th SEPTEMBER, 2025

P.C. :-

1) Both these Applications are filed in a disposed of Criminal Application (APL) No.918 of 2014. Criminal Application was dismissed for non prosecution vide the Order dated 13th March, 2023. There is delay of 1 year and 42 days in filing this Application for restoration.

2) Learned Counsel for the Applicants seeks permission to withdraw both these Applications. As the Applicants want to avail the remedy of filing discharge Application before the Trial Court. Since the learned Counsel is not pressing this Restoration Application and the corresponding condonation of delay Application, both these Applications are allowed to be withdrawn.

3) The main Application was dismissed for non prosecution and therefore, a Division Bench of this Court had not decided the matter on merits. In this view of the matter, the Applicants are at liberty to prefer an Application for discharge before the Trial Court. If such an Application is preferred, it shall be decided on its own merits in accordance with law.

4) With this observation and liberty, both these Applications are allowed to be withdrawn and are disposed of.
