2. At this stage, the learned counsel appearing for the respondents state that this is the fourth round of litigation sought to be initiated by the petitioners for the same cause of action, as earlier writ petitions for identical cause were filed in the years 2011, 2015 and 2016, where the petitioners did not meet with success.

4. If this Court finds substance in the submission made on behalf of the respondents, this could be a fit case for imposing heavy costs.
