MISC. CIVIL APPLICATION NO. 316/2025

ARIHANT SHEKHARCHAND SANGHVI ..APPLICANT
VS
ROSHNI ARIHANT SANGHVI ..RESPONDENT

None for the applicant.

CORAM : RAJESH S. PATIL, J.

DATE : 17 NOVEMBER 2025.

P.C. :

1. The present proceeding has been filed by the applicant seeking transfer of the domestic violence proceeding filed by the wife before the Judicial Magistrate First Class to the Family Court at Thane.
2. From the proceeding, I have observed that in the domestic violence proceeding, the respondent, wife has sought relief under Sections 17 to 21 of the Domestic Violence Act.
3. I have already taken a view in Misc. Civil Application No. 239 of 2024 (Jyoti Abhijeet Kandage vs. Abhijeet Narayan Kandage & Ors.) that if the relief apart from Section 18 to 22 are sought in the domestic violence proceeding, the same cannot be transferred under Section 26 of the Domestic Violence Act. Paragraphs 15, 15.1, and

15.2 read as under:

15) Considering the Sections of D.V Act, and the Judgments discussed in the above paragraphs, it becomes evident that Family Court has power to decide complaint which seeks relief under Sections 18 to 22 of the D.V. Act. Hence in my opinion, transfer of proceedings from Magistrate's Court to Family Court pertaining to relief claimed under Section 18 to 22 of the D.V. Act can be allowed. However, if a transfer proceedings is not a bonafide one, then on merits such a transfer on case to case basis can be rejected. One has to also keep in mind the stage of the proceedings of which transfer is sought.

15.1) Section 26 of D.V Act, refers to only reliefs sought under Section 18 to 22. Therefore, application/complaint seeking relief under any other section of D.V. Act viz. Section 31, etc. would not be maintainable before Family Court.

15.2) So also, one has to also keep in mind who is coming to the court for the transfer of the proceedings, whether it is the Wife or the Husband or any other party. Since a choice is given to the aggrieved person under the D.V. Act to choose the forum for reliefs sought under Section 18 to 22, (i.e.) before the Magistrate under Section 12 or to the civil court, family court or criminal court under Section 26, such transfer if sought by a Wife, considering the judgment of the Supreme Court in the case of N.C.V Aishwarya (supra) will have to be considered favourably.

3.1 In the present proceeding, relief under Section 17 has been sought by the aggrieved party (respondent, wife).

4. In view of the same, there is no merit in present Misc. Civil Application. The same stands dismissed and disposed of accordingly.
