

investigating officer on Thursday, as he is a resident of Bangalore.

3. The learned APP has opposed this request, stating that when the pre-arrest bail was granted by the Sessions Court on 27 February 2025, no such request was made on behalf of the applicant to exclude the condition of attending the concerned police station every Thursday.

4. I have heard the learned Advocates for both sides and have examined the documents on record. The documents indicate that the applicant is engaged in the travel business. The condition imposed by the Sessions Court was only for a period of three months or until the filing of the charge sheet. Since the order was passed on 27 February 2025, the three-month period would end on 27 May 2025, and three weeks have already elapsed.

5. I do not find any reason to modify the condition imposed by the Sessions Court in its order dated 27 February 2025. Hence, the present criminal application stands rejected.
