DATE : 23rd APRIL 2025

P.C. :

1. This is a petition for quashing of the F.I.R. registered with Silvassa Police Station bearing C.R. No. 168 of 2016 for the offence punishable under Sections 498-A, 323 read with 34 of the Indian Penal Code and under Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act. It is on the complaint of Respondent No. 1. She is wife of the Petitioner No. 1. The Petitioner Nos. 2 and 3 are the brother-in-law. Whereas the Petitioner No. 4 is housemaid. There are also others accused, however they are no more.

2. The marriage took place on 18.04.2012 as per the Hindu customs. After the marriage, the Respondent No. 1 started cohabiting with the Petitioner No. 1. He was working at Delhi, whereas the first informant/Respondent No. 1 was taking education. It is her case that she was being physically and mentally harassed by the Petitioner No. 1 and his relatives. The father of the Respondent No. 1 was working as the Deputy Commissioner of Transport and her family members are high ranking officers. She was harassed on account of dowry.

3. The Petitioner No. 1 was subsequently posted at Dadra Nagar Haveli in the year 2014. At that place also she was harassed on various occasions. Even on one occasion, she was physically assaulted. Fed up with this harassment, she has initially written a complaint to the Superintendent of Police, Silvassa on 06.10.2016 and subsequently, this F.I.R. came to be registered on 08.10.2016.

4. Considering this strained relationship, there are also other proceedings including an application for maintenance as per Section 125 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and a complaint under the provisions of the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005. During the pendency of all these proceedings, the well-wishers/family have intervened, and they have decided to separate the marital tie. Even the charge-sheet is filed in the present F.I.R. and the case is pending before the concerned Court at Silvassa.

5. Today, the Respondent No. 1 is present. She has filed an affidavit stating that they have decided to take divorce by mutual consent. They have decided the terms. One of them is withdrawal of all the proceedings and amount of permanent alimony is also fixed. An amount of Rs. 13,00,000/- is already paid. Today the Respondent No. 1 is handed over demand draft for Rs. 7 lakhs. She admits the same. She has admitted the signature on the affidavit. She is identified by her learned counsel.

6. As the dispute is purely personal in nature, we are inclined to quash the proceedings. It is in the interest of both the Parties. Hence, the following order :-

ORDER

- (i) The Writ Petition is allowed.
- (ii) The F.I.R. registered against the present Petitioners vide C.R. No. 168 of 2018 at Silvassa Police Station under Sections 498-A, 323 read with 34 of the Indian Penal Code and under Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act and the consequent proceeding bearing CC. No. 78/2018 pending before Chief Judicial Magistrate, Silvassa are quashed and set aside.

7. Accordingly, the Writ Petition is disposed of.
