P.C. :-

1. In all these matters, the learned Advocate, Ms. Tripathi, appears for the Petitioners. It was at her request that all these matters were listed for final hearing today, as the earlier Bench had admitted all these matters.

2. The learned Advocate makes a request to the Court that it would be difficult for her to take up all the matters consecutively. She prays that if one matter is listed per week for hearing, she would be able to conduct all these matters. We also accept her request to tender brief written notes as well as case law in these matters on whichever dates the matters come up for hearing.

3. She further requests that if there are few matters coming up from a particular District, two matters per District may be listed on the same date, once a week. In view of the above, since she desires that the matters be segregated into a matter per week, we are posting her matters on the following dates : -
