DATED : 22nd SEPTEMBER, 2025

P.C. :-

. Not on board. Upon mentioning, taken on board, because the other Petitions between the same parties are on today's board; and the dispute is settled between them.

2) This is a Petition for quashing of the proceedings arising out of C.R.No.49/2017 dated 01/03/2017 registered at V.P. Marg Police Station, Mumbai under Sections 354, 354(D), 504, 506 and 509 of the Indian Penal Code.

3) Heard Mr. Burzim Bharucha, learned Counsel for the Petitioner, Ms. Sangeeta Phad, learned APP for Respondent No.1 – State and Mr. Utsav

Dalal, learned Counsel for the Respondent No.2.

4) The Petition is filed for quashing of these proceedings by consent. In view of the settlement between the parties, it is not necessary to refer to the allegations in the FIR in detail. Briefly stated, the allegations are that, the Respondent No.2 who had lodged the FIR was married to her husband in the year 2009 but they were divorced in the year 2013. She was in search of a job. Around August, 2015 she had contacted the Petitioner telling him about her search for work. She had started working as Interior Decorator with one firm from 02/01/2016. Around that time, she came in touch with the Petitioner. They used to meet often. She came to know that the Petitioner's wife had deserted him. He was alone.

On 14/02/2016, the Petitioner expressed his love for the Respondent No.2. She accepted his feelings but subsequently, she realized that their natures were not compatible. Therefore, she refused to marry him. The Petitioner did not take her refusal kindly. He started harassing her. He started making many phone calls. In July, 2017 he visited her house and again tried to convince her. There are allegations that he had caught her hand. The harassment continued and the telephonic calls continued. He had abused her. On these allegations, the FIR is lodged. The FIR was lodged in the year 2017. The charge-sheet is filed.

5) Both the learned Counsel submitted before the Court that the Petitioner and the Respondent No.2 have moved on in their lives and they are leading their peaceful lives. The Respondent No.2 has re-married her first husband and is residing with him happily with their child. Similarly, even the Petitioner is married now. It is his second marriage. Therefore, there is no interference from the Petitioner in the life of the Respondent No.2. In this background, the Respondent No.2 has given her no objection for quashing of these proceedings. She has filed her Affidavit-in-reply giving her no objection for quashing not only these proceedings but other proceedings initiated by her.

6) The Respondent No.2 is present in the Court. She is identified by her learned Counsel. She reiterated the contents of the Affidavit before the Court and submitted that she has no objection for quashing of the proceedings. She submitted that there is no apprehension in her mind that any such incident would be repeated. The Petitioner is also present in the Court. He assured the Court that he is living his separate life with his wife and there shall be no further disturbance.

7) Considering this background and the stand taken by the Respondent No.2, no purpose will be served by continuing the criminal prosecution. Therefore, in the interest of the parties and in the interest of justice, we are inclined to allow this Petition. Hence, the following Order :-

(a) The proceedings arising out of the FIR registered at V.P. Marg Police Station, Mumbai vide C.R.No.49/2017 dated 01/03/2017 under Sections 354, 354(D), 504, 506 and 509 of the Indian Penal Code are quashed and set-aside.

8) The Petition is disposed of.
