CORAM: N. J. JAMADAR, J.

DATED: 12th DECEMBER, 2025

PC:-

1. Heard the learned Counsel for the petitioner.
2. The petitioner is aggrieved by the orders passed by the learned Magistrate, whereby the bailable warrant against the accused in a complaint for an offence punishable under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 was cancelled on an application filed by the Constituted Attorney of the accused and the learned Magistrate has also ordered the release of the accused on bail, though he was not present before the Court.
3. The learned Counsel for the petitioner invites the attention of the Court to the bail bond; which does not seem to bear the signature of the accused.

4. The grievances of the petitioner would be redressed if the accused is directed to appear before the learned Magistrate.
5. The learned Magistrate is, thus, requested to issue summons to respondent No.1 – accused to appear before the learned Magistrate in-person on 5th January, 2026 and execute the necessary bail bonds, if already not executed.
6. The petition stands disposed.
