court regularly.

5. The Court finds that the Applicant and the co-accused are facing prosecution for the offences punishable under Sections 409 and 420 read with Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860. The Applicant is a woman.

6. In these circumstances, the Court finds it expedient to stay the effect and operation of the proclamation and NBW issued against the Applicant and give the Applicant an opportunity to appear before the learned Magistrate on the next date i.e. 6 January 2026 and apply for cancellation of NBW and proclamation.

7. Let the Applicant appear before the learned Magistrate on 6 January 2026 and apply for cancellation of NBW and proclamation.

8. In the event, the Applicant appears before the Court and file such application, the learned Magistrate may have due regard to the fact that the Applicant appeared before the Court and undertakes to regularly appear before the Court, while deciding the application for cancellation of proclamation and NBW.

9. In the meanwhile, the execution and operation of the proclamation and NBW shall remain stayed till 6 January 2026.

10. The Criminal Application stands disposed.
