DATED : JULY 22, 2025

P.C.:

1. These are bail applications filed by the applicants under Section 439 of the Criminal Procedure Code, 1973. The matters were taken up for hearing. Learned Advocates appearing for the applicants made submissions in support of the prayer for grant of bail in respect of their respective clients. However, after hearing the submissions and upon a prima facie consideration of the material on record, this Court was not inclined to grant the relief as prayed.

2. At this stage, learned Advocates for the applicants, on instructions, seek permission to withdraw the present bail applications, with liberty to file a fresh application before the Trial Court after a period of one year. The request was made with an understanding of the consequences of such withdrawal.

3. In view of the above, the present bail applications are allowed to be withdrawn.

4. However, the applicants shall be at liberty to file a fresh application before the Trial Court after a period of one year, after the material witnesses are examined.
