

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

ANTICIPATORY BAIL APPLICATION NO. 896/2025

ABHINAV AJIT SINGH

..APPLICANT

VS.

STATE OF MAHARASHTRA

..RESPONDENT

Adv. Ghanshyam Upadhyay a/w. Adv. Vijay Jha i/b. Law Juris for applicant.

Mr. A. A. Naik, APP for State.

CORAM : RAJESH S. PATIL, J.

DATE : APRIL 8, 2025.

P.C. :

1. The learned counsel Mr. Upadhyay appearing for the applicant, on instructions of the sister of the applicant, submits that without admitting the guilt, the applicant is ready to deposit Rs.2,17,000/- in this Court within a period of one week from today. He, on instructions of the sister of the applicant, submits that if the informant desires to withdraw that sum, the applicant has no objection for the same.

2. Since the statement has been made on behalf of the applicant, the applicant is permitted to deposit a sum of Rs.2,17,000/- in this Court within a period of one week from today. Since the informant is present in this Court and is not represented by any lawyer, the learned counsel, Mr. Rajendra Hardas, who was appointed to represent the informant in the co-accused's anticipatory bail application, is also appointed as the informant's lawyer to appear on her behalf in the present proceeding. The learned APP to serve the copy of this anticipatory bail application to the learned counsel Mr.Rajendra Hardas.

- 3. Stand over to 22/4/2025 under the caption “for directions”.
- 4. In the meanwhile, since the applicant has shown his desire to deposit the amount, no coercive action be taken against the applicant till next date of the hearing.

(RAJESH S. PATIL, J.)