4. Learned Counsel appearing for the Applicants submit that the incident in question took place on 19th February 2025 where the First Informant and others have assaulted the injured and accordingly, on 20th February 2025, the offence is registered being FIR No.173 of 2025. Learned Counsel submits that as a counterblasts, the present FIR being FIR No.490 of 2025 has been registered after about four months i.e. on 1st June 2025 regarding the same incident by making false allegations against the present Applicants and therefore, the Applicants are entitled for pre-arrest bail.

5. Learned Counsel appearing for the Applicants states that in two Anticipatory Bail Applications, protection has already been granted by a learned Single Judge by order dated 1st July 2025 and 28th July 2025 and the same is continued from time to time.

Learned Counsel submit that other two Applications have been tagged along with those Applications.

6. Mr. Mali, learned APP appearing for the Respondent-State and Mr. Bhujbal, learned Counsel appearing for the First Informant strongly oppose the Anticipatory Bail Applications. Both of them submit that the offence is very serious and therefore, no protection be granted.

7. Perusal of the record shows that on 20th February 2025 C.R. In the said crime, about 15 accused are involved. In the said crime all the accused have been arrested and most of the accused have been released on regular bail and one of the accused has been released on anticipatory bail.

8. Perusal of the record further shows that with respect to the same incident dated 19th February 2025 cross FIR which is the subject matter of all these Anticipatory Bail Applications has filed on 1st June 2025. Thus, prima facie, there is delay of about 4 months. In any case, now the chargesheet is filed. As far as two Applicants are concerned, interim protection has already been granted.
