

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

Anticipatory Bail Application No.1776 of 2025

Dadasaheb Gorakh Murumkar ... Applicant.

Vs.

The State of Maharashtra ... Respondent.

Mr Dhananjay Chavan for the applicant.

Mr Prashant Jadhav, APP for the respondent / State.

Coram : R.N.Laddha, J.

Date : 2 July 2025.

P.C. :

Learned Counsel for the applicant submits that the panchnama of the alleged incident lacks the signatures of the panchas, who explicitly refused to sign it. Furthermore, the affidavit submitted by the owner of Soham Automobile & Tractor Garage indicates that the applicant's tractor was under repair at the relevant time. The learned Counsel further submits that the informant is not an eyewitness to the incident, and there are no witnesses linking the applicant's tractor to the alleged incident.

2. Learned APP seeks an accommodation on the ground that the investigating officer is not present, and assures the Court that the applicant will not be arrested in connection with the present crime until the next date.

3. By consent stand over to 4 August 2025.
