2. Heard Mr Vinay Bhanushali, the learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the applicant and Mr SM

Mangaonkar, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor representing respondent/ State.

4. The learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the applicant asserts the applicant's innocence and contends that the applicant has been falsely implicated in the present crime. He submits that the alleged injuries suffered by the informant are simple and superficial in nature. The weapon allegedly used in the crime has already been recovered. The investigation is complete and nothing is to be recovered from the applicant.

5. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor representing the respondent/ State contends that the intent to commit the offence is evident from the material on record. The eyewitnesses corroborate the incident. However, the learned APP fairly concedes that the investigation is almost complete and the charge sheet has already been filed against the co-accused.

6. Upon perusing the records, it appears that the allegations against the applicant are that, he along with the co-accused, in furtherance of their common intention, assaulted the first informant. The charge sheet against the co-accused has been filed before the competent Court and there remains nothing to be recovered or discovered from the applicant.
