1. This is an Application for anticipatory bail.
2. The Applicant is apprehending his arrest in Crime No.641 of 2025 registered at Bhandup Police Station for the offences punishable under Sections 115(2), 118(1), 118(2), 351(2), 352 read with 3(5) of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023.
3. According to the prosecution, on the date of incident, which took place on 25th July 2025, the dispute arose between the first informant on one side and the present Applicant and the other co-accused on other side on account of some trivial dispute. It is alleged that during the said dispute, the present Applicant and other co-accused assaulted the first informant by umbrella and caused him grievous injury.

4. I have heard Learned Counsel for the Applicant and Learned Counsel for the Respondent-State.

5. Learned Counsel for the Applicant submitted that the incident was not premeditated. It is submitted that there is no need of custodial interrogation and the Applicant is ready and willing to cooperate in the investigation. It is further submitted that there are no criminal antecedents against the Applicant. Learned Counsel for the Applicant, on instruction, submits that the Applicant, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to pay Rs.50,000/- to the first informant towards the medical expenses.

6. On the other hand, Learned APP for the Respondent-State submits that the present Applicant has assaulted the first informant by umbrella. It is submitted that considering the nature of crime, the Applicant may not be released on anticipatory bail.

7. I have perused the FIR. The incident does not appear to be premeditated. There are no criminal antecedents against the Applicant. In that view of the matter, I am inclined to release the Applicant on anticipatory bail. Hence, the following order:-

ORDER

- i. The Anticipatory Bail Application is allowed.
