(VACATION COURT)

P.C.:

1. This Application is filed by the Applicant for transit bail in connection with Crime No.21 of 2024 for offences under Sections

420, 409, 384, 201, 120B read with Section 34 and 37 of the Indian Penal Code (IPC) and Sections 7, 7A, 8, 9, 12, 13, 13(1)(a), 13(2) of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 by CID Police Station, A.P., Mangalagiri.

2. The contentions which are raised in the present Application by the Applicant is that, he wants to file an appropriate Application for anticipatory bail before the jurisdictional District Court however, there is a fear that the Respondent No.1 might arrest the Applicant thereby curtailing his right to obtain anticipatory bail. Mr. Siddharth Luthra, learned Senior Counsel for the Respondent Nos.1 and 2 states that the Applicant is not residing in Mumbai but he is residing in Rajasthan. He states that the Applicant is not co-operating with investigation. He seeks rejection of the application.
3. Heard learned Counsel appearing for both the parties. This Court has not gone into the merits of the matter including the case of the Applicant for grant of anticipatory bail. Since there is a genuine apprehension of arrest of Applicant in connection with the aforesaid crime which is well supported by the arrest of the brother of the Applicant. The Applicant should be given an opportunity of availing his right to file anticipatory bail before the jurisdictional Court. I am inclined to pass the following order:
