P. C.

1. This Application has been filed under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 ("the Act"), seeking appointment of an arbitrator in connection with disputes and differences that are said to have arisen between the parties under an agreement dated December 29, 2020. The arbitration agreement is contained in Clause 13 (found at Page 69 of the Application). In the interest of brevity, the arbitration agreement is not being extracted here. Suffice it to say that this matter falls within the jurisdiction of this Court.

2. It is apparent from the record that the arbitration agreement was invoked by the Applicant on December 27, 2022, to which there is no response from the Respondent. The objection from the Respondent is primarily that the claim having been settled, no dispute subsists from the arbitration to take place. This is hotly contested by the Applicant. Needless to say, this, in itself prima-facie would be a dispute since the jurisdiction of the Court is restricted to examining the existence of an arbitration agreement. The existence of the arbitration clause not being in dispute. Existential questions about arbitrability would be covered by appropriate application taken out under Section 16 of the Act before the arbitral tribunal.

3. The scope of review under Section 11 is explicitly set out in Section 11(6A) of the Act. It is now trite law, with particular regard to the decisions of a seven-judge bench in the *Interplay Judgement*¹ followed by multiple others, including *SBI General*² and *Patel*³ that the Section 11 Court ought not to venture beyond examining the existence of a validly existing arbitration agreement that has been formally executed. Even questions of existential substance is a matter that falls squarely in the domain of the arbitral tribunal, in view of Section 16 of the Act.

4. Being satisfied that an arbitration agreement is validly in existence, and that arbitration has been duly invoked, it is in the fitness of things to
