CORAM : SANDEEP V. MARNE, J.
DATE : 15 OCTOBER 2025.

P.C.:

1. The learned counsel appearing for the Plaintiff, on instructions, seeks leave of the Court to withdraw the Suits on account of absence of pleadings relating to provisions of Section 12A of the Commercial Courts Act, 2015 (the Act). He would seek liberty to institute fresh Suits by incorporating necessary pleadings or for taking appropriate steps in terms of Section 12A of the Act. Reserving the liberty as prayed for the Suits are permitted to be withdrawn and disposed of.
2. Ad-interim injunction granted in favour of the Plaintiff stands vacated. Refund of Court fees as per rules.
3. In view of the disposal of the Suits, nothing would survive in the Interim Applications and the same are also disposed of accordingly.
