CORAM : KAMAL KHATA, J.

DATED : 16TH DECEMBER 2025.

P.C. :

1. The Advocate is permitted to amend the cause title for changing the wife's name. The amendment to be carried out forthwith.

2. The learned Advocate for the Plaintiff submits that the parties have amicably settled their disputes. The parties to the consent terms, who are present in Court, have been identified by the Court Associate, and have confirmed their respective signatures on the Consent Terms. The Advocates for the parties have also appended their signatures against those of their respective clients confirming the due execution of the Consent Terms.

3. The parties present confirm before the Court that the Consent Terms have been executed of their own volition and without any coercion or undue influence.

4. The Consent Terms tendered are accepted and marked “X” and “X1” for identification with today’s date respectively.

5. Having perused the Consent Terms, I find them to be in order, not contrary to law, and reflective the true intentions of the parties.

6. The undertakings contained in the Consent Terms are accepted as undertakings to the Court.

7. The Registry shall ensure that the hard copy of the signed Consent Terms is permanently retained on record and not sent for destruction in the ordinary course.

8. List the matter for compliance on 3rd February 2026.

9. The Advocate in Parsi Suit No. 1 of 2025 submits that, Ms. Zenobia Irani the Advocate on record seeks discharge from the matter. The same is noted. The Advocate must make appropriate application to the Registry for the said discharge.
