P. C.

1. This is an Application has been filed under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 ("the Act"), seeking appointment of an arbitrator in connection with disputes and differences that are said to have arisen between the parties under an agreement dated February 23, 2024 ("Agreement"), which contains an arbitration clause (found at Page 37 of the Application). In the interest of brevity, the arbitration agreement is not being extracted here. Suffice it to say that this matter falls within the jurisdiction of this Court.

2. Learned Counsel for the Applicant has tendered service affidavits dated August 21, 2024 and February 2, 2025. Service Affidavits are taken on record.

3. It is apparent from the record that the default under the Agreement is said to have been occurred in February 2024. A loan recall cum invocation notice was issued on May 16, 2024. Despite service, the Respondent has not entered appearance.

4. The scope of review under Section 11(6A) is explicitly set out in Section 11 of the Act. It is now trite law, with particular regard to the Supreme Court's decision rendered by a seven-judge Bench in the Interplay Judgement^a followed by multiple others, including SBI General^b and Patel^c that the Section 11 Court ought not to venture beyond examining the existence of a validly existing arbitration agreement that has been formally executed. Even questions of existential substance is a matter that falls squarely in the domain of the arbitral tribunal, in view of Section 16 of the Act.

5. Being satisfied that an arbitration agreement is validly in existence, and that arbitration has been duly invoked, it is in the fitness of things to refer the disputes and differences between the parties in connection with the aforesaid Agreement to arbitration by a Sole Arbitrator.

³ Ajay Madhusudan Patel Vs. Jyotindra S. Patel – 2024 SCC OnLine, SC 2597

6. In these circumstances, this Application is finally disposed of sending the parties to conduct arbitral proceedings before the Arbitral Tribunal appointed hereby in the following terms :
