CORAM : SOMASEKHAR SUNDARESAN, J.

DATE : MARCH 3, 2025

PC :

1. This Application has been filed under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (“the Act”), seeking appointment of an arbitrator in connection with disputes and differences that are said to have arisen between the parties under a Business Loan Agreement dated September 11, 2019 (“Agreement”). The arbitration agreement is contained in Clause 13 (found at Page 48 and 49 of the Application). In the interest of brevity, the arbitration agreement is not being extracted here. Suffice it to say that this matter falls within the jurisdiction of this Court.

2. On the last occasion, to give last chance to the Respondents to present its say the matter was stood over to today.

3. Today, the Respondents have entered appearance and accepted service however upon examination of the record it is evident that there is bare denial of ever signed any agreement which contains any arbitration clause. However, it is in the Agreement that has been signed containing arbitration clause that has been annexed to this Application, under which loans were availed by the Respondents from the Applicant. In these circumstances, being satisfied that the arbitration agreement is in existence leaving all contentions on merits to open to the parties to agitate before the Arbitral Tribunal, this Application is finally disposed of.

4. The scope of review under Section 11 is explicitly set out in Section 11(6A) of the Act. It is now trite law, with particular regard to the Supreme Court's decision rendered by a seven-judge Bench in the *Interplay Judgement*¹ followed by multiple others, including *SBI General*² and *Patel*³ that the Section 11 Court ought not to venture beyond examining the existence of a validly existing arbitration agreement that has been formally executed. Even questions of existential substance is a matter that falls squarely in the domain of the arbitral tribunal, in view of Section 16 of the Act.

5. Being satisfied that an arbitration agreement is validly in existence, and that arbitration has been duly invoked, it is in the fitness of things to refer the disputes and differences between the parties in connection with the aforesaid Agreement dated September 11, 2019 to arbitration by a Sole Arbitrator.

6. Consequently, this Application is finally disposed of in the following terms:-

A] The disputes and differences covered by this Application is hereby referred to the Mumbai Centre for International Arbitration (<https://mcia.org.in>), in terms of its Institutional Arbitration Rules, to appoint an appropriate arbitrator to adjudicate upon the disputes and differences between the parties arising out of and in connection with the Agreement referred to above;
