CORAM : SOMASEKHAR SUNDARESAN, J.

DATE : MARCH 24, 2025

PC :

1. This Application has been filed under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (“the Act”), seeking appointment of an arbitrator in connection with disputes and differences that are said to have arisen between the parties under an Agreement dated February 27, 2020 (“Agreement”). The arbitration agreement is contained in Clause 13 (found at Page 48 and 49 of the Application). In the interest of brevity, the arbitration agreement is not being extracted here. Suffice it to say that this matter falls within the jurisdiction of this Court.

2. The Applicant has invoked arbitration by notice dated November 14, 2022, to which there is no response from the Respondents.

3. It is seen from the record that service affidavit dated March 19, 2025 has been filed which shows that the service has indeed been effected on the Respondents. The Respondents have not appeared today. Therefore no useful purpose would be served in keeping the matter pending any further.

4. The scope of review under Section 11 is explicitly set out in Section 11(6A) of the Act. It is now trite law, with particular regard to the Supreme Court's decision rendered by a seven-judge Bench in the Interplay Judgement<sup>1</sup> followed by multiple others, including SBI General<sup>2</sup> and Patel<sup>3</sup> that the Section 11 Court ought not to venture beyond examining the existence of a validly existing arbitration agreement that has been formally executed. Even questions of existential substance is a matter that falls squarely in the domain of the arbitral tribunal, in view of Section 16 of the Act.

5. Being satisfied that an arbitration agreement is validly in existence, and that arbitration has been duly invoked, it is in the fitness of things to refer the disputes and differences between the parties in connection with the aforesaid Agreement dated February 27, 2020 to arbitration by a Sole Arbitrator.

6. Consequently, this Application is finally disposed of in the following terms:-

A] The disputes and differences covered by this Application are hereby referred to the Mumbai Centre for International
