CORAM : SOMASEKHAR SUNDARESAN, J.

DATE : MARCH 21, 2025

PC :

1. The captioned proceedings have been filed under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (“the Act”), seeking appointment of an arbitrator in connection with the same disputes and differences between the very same parties under the four separate Service Agreements pursuant to which debt was assigned among between the parties. Two Agreements are dated October 27, 2016 and the remaining two are of December 23, 2016 (“Agreements”). The arbitration agreements are contained in Clause 13.2 and 12.2 of the Agreements (found at Pages 39 & 51 of the Application respectively). In the interest of brevity, the arbitration agreements are not being extracted here. Suffice it to say that this matter falls within the jurisdiction of this Court.

2. It is apparent from the record that all the arbitration agreements were invoked by the Applicant on October 3, 2023. It is seen from the reply dated October 31, 2023 that there is no dispute about the existence of the arbitration agreements but, there the parties disagree on the identity of the arbitrator proposed by the Applicant. In these circumstances, no useful purpose would be served in keeping these proceedings pending on the docket of this Court any further.

3. The scope of review under Section 11 is explicitly set out in Section 11(6A) of the Act. It is now trite law, with particular regard to the decisions of a seven-judge bench in the *Interplay Judgement*¹ followed by multiple others, including *SBI General*² and *Patel*³ that the Section 11 Court ought not to venture beyond examining the existence of a validly existing arbitration agreement that has been formally executed. Even questions of existential substance is a matter that falls squarely in the domain of the arbitral tribunal, in view of Section 16 of the Act.

4. Being satisfied that arbitration agreements are validly in existence, and that arbitration has been duly invoked under each agreement, it is in the fitness of things to refer the disputes and differences between the parties in connection with the aforesaid agreements to arbitration by a Sole Arbitrator.

5. In these circumstances, this Application is hereby finally disposed of, in terms of the following order:

Vazifdar, former Chief Justice of Punjab and Haryana High Court and a former judge of this Court, is hereby appointed as the Sole Arbitrator to adjudicate upon the disputes and differences between the parties arising out of and in connection with the Agreements referred to above;

on the file of this Application and a copy of the same shall be furnished by the Advocates for the Applicant to the Respondent;
