CORAM : SOMASEKHAR SUNDARESAN, J.
DATE : JUNE 19, 2025

ORDER :

1. This Application has been filed under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 ("the Act") seeking appointment of an arbitrator in connection with disputes and differences that are said to have arisen between the parties under an Agreement dated March 2, 2022 ("Agreement"). The arbitration agreement is contained in Clause 30 of the Agreement (found at Page Nos.66 and 67 of the Application). In the interest of brevity, the arbitration agreement is not being extracted here. Suffice it to say that this matter falls within the jurisdiction of this Court.

2. Today, none appears for the Respondent. It can be seen from the affidavit in reply that the contention of the Respondent appears to be that the work carried out by the Applicant for which arbitration has been invoked was additional work and therefore would not be covered by the arbitration agreement. This is not something that this court can look into and it is for the Respondent to seek appropriate rulings under Section 16 of the Act before the Arbitral Tribunal.

3. The scope of review under Section 11 is explicitly set out in Section 11(6A) of the Act. It is now trite law, with particular regard to the Supreme Court's decision rendered by a seven-judge Bench in the *Interplay Judgement*¹ followed by multiple others, including *SBI General*² and *Patel*³ that the Section 11 Court ought not to venture beyond examining the existence of a validly existing arbitration agreement that has been formally executed. Even questions of existential substance is a matter that falls squarely in the domain of the arbitral tribunal, in view of Section 16 of the Act.

4. Being satisfied that an arbitration agreement is validly in existence, and that arbitration has been duly invoked, it is in the fitness of things to refer the disputes and differences between the parties in connection with the aforesaid Agreement dated March 2, 2022 to arbitration by a Sole Arbitrator.

5. In these circumstances, no useful purpose would be served by keeping this matter pending any further on the docket of this Court. The
