CORAM : ARIF S. DOCTOR, J.

DATED : 6th MARCH 2025

P.C. ,

1 The parties have today entered into consent terms, by which the disputes and differences in the caption suit have been amicably resolved in terms of the consent terms. The execution of the consent terms is supported by the report dated 6th March 2025 of the Associate of this court. The report inter alia records as follows:

“All the Signatories have admitted the contents of the consent terms. The consent term are duly signed by the parties out of their free will without any undue influence and coercion. The consent term are duly executed by the signatories.”

2 The consent terms are taken on record and marked “X” for identification. Both the learned counsel confirm that the consent terms do not touch upon any issue which travels beyond the scope of the suit neither do they affect or afford to affect right of any parties who is not party to the suit. Accepting the assurance of the learned counsel, the suit stands disposed of in terms of the consent terms.

3 Refund of court fees shall be as per Rule.

4 A soft copy of the Consent Terms will be uploaded as the second order in the matter. The Registry is to ensure that the hard copy of the signed Consent Terms is permanently retained on file as part of the record and is not sent for destruction in the ordinary course.

5 The parties at this stage seek leave to amend the suit by appending the Schedule of Securities (Schedule-i) appended to the consent terms, Parties are at Liberty to amend the same.

6 Re-verification is dispensed with.
