CORAM: SOMASEKHAR SUNDARESAN, J.

DATE : MARCH 19, 2025

PC :

1. This Application has been filed under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (“the Act”), seeking appointment of an arbitrator in connection with disputes and differences that are said to have arisen between the parties under a Customer Contract dated June 29, 2023 (“Agreement”). The arbitration agreement is contained in Clause 18 (found at Page 41 of the Petition). In the interest of brevity, the arbitration agreement is not being extracted here. Suffice it to say that this matter falls within the jurisdiction of this Court.

2. It is apparent from the record that the arbitration agreement was invoked by the Applicant on June 29, 2024, to which here is no response from the Respondent.

3. Having seen that an arbitration agreement is in existence, no fruitful purpose would be served by keeping the matter pending any further, since the Applications having been filed way back in August 2024 and invocation having been made way back in June 2024, we are now in March 2025 and even very first step of constituting an arbitral tribunal has not been achieved.

4. The scope of review under Section 11 is explicitly set out in Section 11(6A) of the Act. It is now trite law, with particular regard to the decisions of a seven-judge bench in the *Interplay Judgement*¹ followed by multiple others, including *SBI General*² and *Pate*³ that the Section 11 Court ought not to venture beyond examining the existence of a validly existing arbitration agreement that has been formally executed. Even questions of existential substance is a matter that falls squarely in the domain of the arbitral tribunal, in view of Section 16 of the Act.

5. Being satisfied that an arbitration agreement is validly in existence, and that arbitration has been duly invoked, it is in the fitness of things to refer the disputes and differences between the parties in connection with the aforesaid Agreement dated June 29, 2023 to arbitration by a Sole Arbitrator.

6. In these circumstances, no useful purpose would be served keeping the matter pending any further, this Application is finally disposed of in the following terms:
