CORAM : ARIF S. DOCTOR, J.

DATE : 20TH JANUARY 2025

P.C. :

1. Interim Application (L) No.29302 of 2024 is filed for condonation of delay in filing the Written Statement. The said Interim Application is not opposed by Learned Counsel for the Plaintiff as the parties are today entered into consent terms.

2. In view of the above, Interim Application is allowed in terms of prayer clause (a), which reads thus:

“a. This Hon'ble Court be pleased to condone the delay of 77 days in filing the Written Statement in the captioned matter and take the Written Statement which is at Exhibit A on record;

3. The Interim Application is thus disposed of accordingly.

4. The parties have today tendered consent terms. The execution of the said consent terms has been duly verified by the Associate of this Court, who has appended his report to the said consent terms.

5. The Advocates for the parties submit that the consent terms are lawful, valid and did not affect the right, title and interest of the third party, who is not party to the Suit.

6. Accepting the aforesaid statement, the consent terms are marked as 'X' for identification with today's date.

7. The Suit is thus disposed of in terms of the consent terms.
8. Interim Applications, if any, are also disposed of accordingly.
9. The undertakings given in the consent terms are accepted as undertakings given to the Court.
10. Refund of court fees, if any, as per Rules.
11. A soft copy of the Consent Terms will be uploaded as the second order in the matter. The Registry is to ensure that the hard copy of the signed Consent Terms is permanently retained on file as part of the record and is not sent for destruction in the ordinary course.
