P. C.

1. This is an Application under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 ("the Act"), seeking appointment of an arbitrator in connection with disputes and differences that are said to have arisen between the parties under the two Work Orders, namely, First Work Order (Exh. C) dated October 10, 2018 and the Second Work Order dated October 17, 2018 (Exh.D). The arbitration agreement is contained in Clause 18 (found at Pages 56 & Page 73, respectively, of the Application). In the interest of brevity, the arbitration agreement is not being extracted here. Suffice it to say that this matter falls within the jurisdiction of this Court.

2. It is apparent from the record that the arbitration agreement was invoked by Applicant on September 27, 2024, to which there was no response by the Respondent. The Respondent has not entered appearance. Service affidavit dated February 28, 2025 demonstrating service is taken on record.

3. The scope of review under Section 11 is explicitly set out in Section 11(6A) of the Act. It is now trite law, with particular regard to the decisions of a seven-judge bench in the Interplay Judgement followed by multiple others, including *SBI General*¹ and *Patel*² that the Section 11 Court ought not to venture beyond examining the existence of a validly existing arbitration agreement that has been formally executed. Even questions of existential substance is a matter that falls squarely in the domain of the arbitral tribunal, in view of Section 16 of the Act.

4. Being satisfied that an arbitration agreement is validly in existence, and that arbitration has been duly invoked, it is in the fitness of things to refer the disputes and differences between the parties in connection with the agreements referred above to arbitration by a Sole Arbitrator.

³ Ajay Madhusudan Patel v. Jyotrindra S. Patel – 2024 SCC OnLine SC 2597

5. In these circumstances, no useful purpose would be served keeping this matter pending any further. Consequently, the Application is finally disposed of in the following terms :

6. Needless to say, nothing contained in this order is an expression of an opinion on merits of the matter or the relative strength of the parties. All issues on merits are expressly kept open to be agitated before the arbitral tribunal appointed hereby.

7. All actions required to be taken pursuant to this order, shall be taken upon receipt of a downloaded copy as available on this Court's website.
