24. The Petitioner institution’s recognition as per the representation of ICSW to place children in adoption is valid for a period upto 5th May, 2025.

25. I have also interacted with the Prospective Adoptive Parents through video conferencing facility of this Court today and they are eager to adopt Ansh.

26. I have inquired from the prospective adoptive parents as to why despite having three biological children they are keen to have Ansh, who is a child with special needs as their adoptive child and they have stated that they have always wanted to grow their family through adoption as that would be a wonderful way to expand their family and also provide a loving supportive and stable home for the child. My interaction has revealed that both Timothy and Sydney appear to be a happy family having the necessary maturity to adopt Ansh especially considering that they already have three biological children, two daughters aged 9 and 8 years respectively and one son aged about 5 years. The psychological evaluation report which has assessed the suitability of the couple as adoptive parents suggests with affirmation that the Yeagers are of mental and moral suitability to adopt having provided a safe, loving and supportive home for their biological children and that they are a strong recommendation for adoption.

27. When this Court also inquired as to how they would be able to take care of Ansh who is special needs child, both his prospective parents have submitted that they have strong community support.

28. The home study report is also encouraging and speaks well of the suitability of the prospective adoptive parents to adopt Ansh as their child. A perusal of the papers also indicates that the three biological children are also very keen to have a new sibling and cannot wait to welcome a new brother or sister to their family.

29. As far as the special needs of Ansh are concerned, the undertaking dated 11th December, 2024 at page 170, clearly indicates that :

(i) the prospective adoptive parents have had Ansh's medical report reviewed by an international specialist, two Pediatricians and an audiologist. That they are aware that Ansh was born pre-term/low birth weight, with a probable developmental delay, bilateral raised hearing threshold in both ears and mild anaemia;

(ii) that they have done their own research on raising a child with hearing loss and looked into therapies and schools in their area that cater to his specific needs.

(iii) They have stated that they know that Ansh may be a candidate of a Cochlear Implant and that they have done their own research as well. It is stated in the undertaking that Ansh will have immediate needs along with long term needs as they welcome Ansh home. The undertaking states that they plan to have Ansh evaluated by their team of doctors as soon as he is home.

(iv) It has been stated in the said undertaking that there is an amazing medical community in Houston and feel confident and that they will be able to get him the resources he needs to thrive as a child with hearing loss. That Ansh will be covered by the same insurance as their current children and will be given the same level of care.

(v) It is also stated in the said undertaking that they know there may also be medical needs that they are unaware but feel very confident that they will be able to meet any unforeseen medical, physical and emotional needs. The couple has undertaken that they are devoted to loving and accepting Ansh into their family no matter what his needs may be.

30. From a review of their employment, income and financial documents it appears that the Yeagers have the wherewithal to take care of Ansh's upbringing, having residence of their own in Houston, Texas and both are having stable jobs.

31. I have also seen Ansh today as he has been brought before me by his caretaker from the Petitioner institution and he seems to be a pleasant smiling and happy go lucky child and in my view, will adjust in his new home with the prospective adoptive parents.

32. Ergo, having considered the material on record as well as the representation of Mr. O. Hareendran, Scrutiny Officer, ICSW dated 19th January, 2025, as well as the submissions by Mr.Kapoor for the Petitioner and having interacted with the Prospective Adoptive Parents online as well, I am of the view that it would be in Ansh's interest that he is adopted by the Prospective Adoptive Parents.

33. This Court is satisfied that the adoption is for Ansh's welfare and the prospective adoptive parents also have the wherewithal to take care of him. Since he is of 1 year, it is not possible to give consideration to his wishes but as parens patriae, I am of the view that the adoption will secure his special needs and upbringing. From the proceedings before me and the interaction with the proposed adoptive parents as well as the Mrs. Chincholkar, social worker, and the learned Counsel, it does not appear to me that this is a case where any consideration has been given or agreed to be given in consideration for the adoption nor any material has been placed before me or brought to my notice to hold otherwise.

34. In view of the order dated 10th January 2023 of this Court in the case of Nisha Pradeep Pandya alias Nisha Amit Gor and Anr. Vs. Union of India and Ors.¹, concerning challenge raised to the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Amendment Act, 2021, this Court has jurisdiction to consider and dispose of the present Petition. (e) That the proposed adopters be allowed to change the name of the said minor 'ANSH' to "Ansh Jacob Yeager".

36. In addition to the above, this Court also directs the AFAA to report along with supporting documents/current medical reports, the status, growth and well being of the child Ansh to the Indian Embassy in Washington DC, every six months to be forwarded to the Petitioner Trust as well as ICSW and this Court till Ansh attains the age of majority in the USA.

37. The Judge's order is accepted and signed separately.

38. All undertakings contained in the Petition are accepted as undertakings to this Court.

39. The Foreign Adoption Petition accordingly stands allowed and disposed as above.
