2. Learned Counsel for Respondent No.1 submits that, without prejudice to all rights and contentions including the objection as to jurisdiction, she has instructions to agree to proceed to arbitration before a Learned Arbitral Tribunal appointed by this Court. The Arbitral Tribunal shall decide all matters, including the issue of jurisdiction of the Arbitral Tribunal.

3. Learned Counsel for Respondent No.2 submits that Respondent No.2 is not a party to the arbitration agreement. In contrast, Learned Counsel for the Applicant submits that the project that has been executed by Respondent No.1 was a project awarded by Respondent No.2 to Respondent No.1, and therefore, he would desire to satisfy the Learned Arbitral Tribunal about Respondent No.2 being a veritable party.

4. In view of the law declared in ASF Buildtech¹ since the Learned Arbitral Tribunal is fully empowered to take a view on this position, this Court is not expressing a prima facie view one way or the other. Leaving all the contentions open, the Applicant and Respondent No.1 shall proceed to arbitration before the Learned Arbitral Tribunal
